

This Story is Called Once I Wanted to be a Bat

So, yesterday at school I was having so much fun at recess. I decided I wanted to be a bat. I thought it was going to be fun.

I thought I was a bat because I am nocturnal. Bats are nocturnal too. Nocturnal means you stay up all night. I stay up all night. It's true.

At the playground I was on a bar just like a bat. I only had my legs on the bar and I was upside-down. I put my hands on the ground and lifted one of my hands up and I left one hand on the ground. And that was a bad choice. Being a bat is not wise.

I am a cat not a bat. What makes me a cat is that I like making cat noises. Cats are my absolute favorite animal. I loved them from the second I was born. I like milk and cats like milk too.
