

Come To Take

Have you come to take my heart?
Tear all my innocence apart
So I'll just have another war to start
Yes, you've come to take my heart

Have you come to take my mind?
Like the others I'll blind
So I'll leave all my childhood fantasies behind
Yes, you've come to take my mind

Have you come to take my soul?
To change my life and crush my goals
So I'll be another story untold
Yes, you've come to take my soul

Have you come to take my joy?
Leave ~~me~~ on a shelf like an abandoned toy
So I'll be like all your girls and boys
Yes, you've come to take my joy

Have you come to take my life?
Stab my back with your knife
So I'll drown in this pool of strife
Yes, you've come to take my life
