

FROM ONE TO PETS

Once there was a man named Uno. He lived in a town with one ocean, one house , one street , one lamp-post, one street-light ,one food-item ,one way-to-travel and a population of one. The town was named One. He had a dream. HE DIDN'T KNOW IF IT WAS POSSIBLE. He wanted to get a lot of pets from around the universe . He waited until morning. Z z z z z z z. THE PROBLEM WAS THAT THE ONLY WAY TO TRAVLE WAS BY A BOAT WITH UNCONTROLLABLE LEGS AND ROCKET POWER THAT DISAPPEAR IN THE WATER AND COME BACK ONLY WHEN ON LAND.

First he went to Antartica and got a penguin and a puffin. Then he went to outer space and got every type of alien. After that Uno got a panda from China. Next a dog, a cat ,and a tiger from Texas. Soon a hamster,a roadrunner,and a wood pecker from the Sahara. Eventually a giraffe and a hippo from South Africa. Finally a beta , a tetra , a sea otter ,clown fish ,and a turtle from the sea. He achieved his dream and the population of his town changed to twenty-four and the new name of the town was called Pets.
