Dream the Possible Dream

The best part about playing Pokemon Go is spending time with my Dad. We have travelled to many places, so I can catch new Pokemon. This summer, we went to Colorado and Santa Fe.

On the weekends, we spend time on Balboa Island, Santa Monica Pier and La Brea Tar Pits finding Pokemon, where I found an Aradactyl. My rarest Pokemon are Grimer and Vileplume.

The game teaches me that I can Dream the Possible Dream because I can level up and become the Master of Pokemon at Level 100. That's going to be super hard and will take about two years!

Next on my list is a trip to Europe to catch Mr. Mime and Australia to catch Kangaskahn..
