Donate Your Books To Friends of the Palisades Library!

The Pacific Palisades Library Association is delighted to announce that we will once again be accepting book donations for our popular parking-lot book sales. Beginning on January 10, volunteers will be in the library parking lot on Wednesdays and Saturdays to accept your book donations.

Parking-lot book sales have been a treasured community activity in Pacific Palisades for more than three decades. The book sales provide critical funds for library books, educational materials, community programs and other improvements at the Palisades Library as well as assistance to underserved libraries in other parts of Los Angeles.

January Book Donation Intake Dates and Hours:

- Wednesdays: January 10, 17, 24, 31 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.
- Saturdays: January 13, 20, 27 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Please note that we can only accept books in good condition. Books should not be written in or highlighted, or show signs of excessive wear and tear. We cannot accept magazines, textbooks, CDs, DVDs or encyclopedias. Please do not leave book donations at the library at times other than those specified above or drop donations when our volunteers are not present.

Our work in the Palisades community would not be possible without members and volunteers. For more information, please email us at friends@friendsofpalilibrary.org. We’d love to have you join us!
